November 2014

Brethren,

We had a great time Saturday October 11th at TMRC's Family Day. Thanks to all who came out to support the lodge in it's "Cajun Kitchen" efforts. For November's Family Night program, we are in the process of putting together an "Honor Veterans" Night. This year, Veteran's Day falls squarely on our Family Night, the 11th. Tony Whitehead will have a program on "Masonic Aviators" to commemorate Veteran's Day. Our fourth quarterly trash pick up for the "Adopt a Highway" Program will be held on Saturday November 15, pushed back a little due to scheduling conflicts.

I'd like to encourage all lodge brothers to come visit soon especially if we haven't heard how you're getting along in awhile

Fraternally,

James Ball, WM

Wow, what a great weekend in Corpus Christi for the Warden's Retreat. There were over 120 senior and junior wardens receiving so much information its going to take me a couple of weeks just to absorb it.

I had a great lesson in the comradely of Masonry. A classmate and I sat down at one of the banquet tables for lunch when a husband and wife asked if they can join us.

"Yeah su...", stuttered I, "uh, uh, yeah". It was the Most Worshipful Grandmaster Martin and his wife, Betty.

But the highlight of the weekend was Saturday night when they held a masters degree aboard the USS Lexington, a WWII aircraft carrier, in costume! Now that was an memorable experience.

Don "Navy" Bean
Senior Warden

Brethren:

Thanksgiving will be here before you know it and I hope everyone will have plenty to eat and good friends and family to share your Thanksgiving.

"it's beginning to look a lot like Christmas"

We will be having our third cleanup of the "Adopt a Highway" program Saturday November 15th. We cleanup along Buckner Blvd. between Garland Rd and Northwest Hwy which usually takes about two hours. Then we retire to Chiles for refreshments. Sound like a lot of work but it is a lot of fun and interesting. Come out and help we will notify a time to meet at the lodge before going to our assigned area..

I want to thank WM James Ball III for his guidance and encouragement to all of us this year and to wish him and everyone a joyous holiday season.

Terry Williams
Junior Warden
