October 2014

Brethren,

We had a great time at September's monthly Family Night on the 9th. We awarded our Community Builder Award to Lisa Hembry, President/CEO of Literacy Instruction For Texas (LIFT). Brother Jim Pelfrey, who volunteers every Thursday Morning at LIFT presented Ms Hembry with the plaque.

October looks to be a busy month. On Saturday the 11th, we will run a food booth out at TMRC Family Day in Arlington. Brother Nix will be entering his new HOG in the motorcycle portion of the car show out there that day. We could use all the help we can get attending to the booth so if you're free that day and want to spend time chillin' out and helping the lodge sell good eats, please feel free to join us. Festivities run from about 10a to about 3 or 4p, we'll need time to set up the booth beforehand. Call the Master at 214-537-3742 if there any questions.

We're are going try and have our second dual lodge study club on or about the Oct 21 of October. More details to follow on that as they become available.

Fraternally,

James Ball, WM

Orvon Grover Autry (September 29, 1907 – October 2, 1998), better known as Gene Autry, was an American performer who gained fame as a singing cowboy on the radio, in movies, and on television for more than three decades beginning in the early 1930s. Autry was also owner of a television station, several radio stations in Southern California, and the Los Angeles/California/Anaheim Angels Major League Baseball team from 1961 to 1997. From 1934 to 1953, Autry appeared in 93 films and 91 episodes of The Gene Autry Show television series. During the 1930s and 1940s, he personified the straight-shooting hero—honest, brave, and true—and profoundly touched the lives of millions of Americans. Autry is still remembered for his Christmas holiday songs, “Here Comes Santa Claus”, which he wrote, “Frosty the Snowman”, and his biggest hit, “Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer”. Orvon Grover Autry was born September 29, 1907 near Tioga in Grayson County in north Texas, the grandson of a Methodist preacher. His parents, Delbert Autry and Elnora Ozment, moved in the 1920s to Ravia in Johnston County in southern Oklahoma. During World War II Autry enlisted in the United States Army in 1942 and became a tech sergeant in the Air Corps. Holding a private pilot’s license, he was determined to become an aviator and earned his service pilot rating in June 1944, serving as a C-109 transport pilot with the rank of flight officer. Assigned to a unit of the Air Transport Command, he flew as part of the dangerous airlift operation over the Himalayas between India and China, nicknamed the Hump. Autry, was raised into Freemasonry in 1927 at Catoosa Lodge No. 185, Catoosa Oklahoma. He later became a 33rd degree Master Mason, as recorded on his headstone. Gene Autry died of lymphoma on October 2, 1998, aged 91 at his home in Studio City, California.
